

APPLICATION FOR DEPARTMENT OF JEWISH STUDIES STUDENT AWARDS

Eligibility and Requirements: These awards are intended to enable students to take courses or pursue research related to Jewish Studies. To be eligible for an award, students must be a sophomore, junior, or senior with a declared major or minor in Jewish Studies at Rutgers or enrolled in the Jewish Studies MA program at Rutgers. Preference is given to students who have a sustained record of achievement in Jewish Studies. Undergraduate students seeking to transfer credits for Jewish Studies courses that they plan to take at institutions abroad are required to discuss their plan of study with the Undergraduate Director of the Department of Jewish Studies prior to enrolling in these courses.

To be considered for an award, students must submit this application to the Department of Jewish Studies, along with a copy of their unofficial Rutgers transcript, by noon on Friday, March 2, 2018. Students must also request two letters of recommendation from faculty, one of whom is a member of the Department of Jewish Studies at Rutgers. These letters should also be submitted by March 2 at noon. (Please request these letters from faculty at least two weeks before the deadline.) Prior recipients of awards may re-apply and must submit a new application form and request new letters of recommendation.

All awards are based on academic merit; some awards are based on both academic merit and financial need. To be considered for awards based on both merit and need, students must have a FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) on file with the Rutgers Financial Aid Office. NOTE: If you receive needs-based financial aid, please be advised that receiving a Jewish Studies Student Award may result in the reduction of federal student aid or loans.

If you have any questions, please contact either Professor Azzan Yadin-Israel, Undergraduate Director, by e-mail: azzan@rutgers.edu or Arlene Goldstein, Department Administrator, at 848-932-3571 or by e-mail: arleneg@rutgers.edu.
