

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR STUDY IN ISRAEL AWARDSFALL 2020*DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 16, 2020

Study in Israel awards provide financial support to full-time Rutgers undergraduate and graduate students to study at an accredited Israeli university (Hebrew University, Tel Aviv University, Bar-Ilan University, Ben-Gurion University, University of Haifa, and the Technion). Documentation of acceptance from an accredited Israeli university is required at the time of application. Applicants need not be Jewish Studies majors or minors. Students must comply with all current Rutgers University policies concerning study abroad. During the Fall of 2020, awards will be provided solely for students taking courses online at accredited Israeli universities. NOTE: If you receive needs-based financial aid, please be advised that receiving a Study in Israel Award may result in the reduction of federal student aid or loans.

To be considered for an award, applicants must submit the following:

1. Application documents (see below)
2. An unofficial Rutgers transcript
3. Documentation of acceptance for study at an accredited Israeli university and evidence of courses being offered online.
4. Two letters of recommendation from faculty. Please request these letters at least two weeks before the deadline and ask professors to e-mail their letters directly to the Jewish Studies Department Administrator, Jenny Gehrman (jennyg13@rutgers.edu).

Applicants should e-mail items 1-3 to Jenny Gehrman (jennyg13@rutgers.edu).

If you have any questions, please e-mail Jenny Gehrman (jennyg13@rutgers.edu).
