

APPLICATION FOR JEWISH STUDIES AWARDS

STUDY IN ISRAEL/ABROAD

Academic Year 2023 – 2024

Study in Israel/Abroad awards provide financial support to full-time Rutgers students (both undergraduate and graduate) to study at any of the six accredited Israeli universities: Hebrew University, Tel-Aviv University, Bar-Ilan University, Ben-Gurion University, University of Haifa, and the Technion, or to enroll in a program of Jewish Studies at universities in other countries.

Applicants need not be Jewish Studies majors or minors.

Documentation of acceptance from an accredited university is required at the time of application.

Students must comply with all current Rutgers University policies concerning study abroad.

To be considered for an award, applicants must submit the following to Amanda Gravenhise, the Department of Jewish Studies Administrator:

Amanda.gravenhise@rutgers.edu.

Kindly place the words “Study in Israel/Abroad Awards” in the subject line.

- completed application (see the following three pages)
- Rutgers transcript (an unofficial copy is fine)
- documentation of acceptance from an accredited university
- two (2) letters of recommendation from faculty members, at least one of whom must be associated with Rutgers. Please request these letters at least two weeks before the deadline and ask your recommenders to e-mail their letters directly to Amanda Gravenhise: Amanda.gravenhise@rutgers.edu
