

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR EXCELLENCE IN JEWISH STUDIES AWARDS
SPRING 2024

Excellence in Jewish Studies Awards recognize achievements by Rutgers students in the field of Jewish Studies. To be eligible for an award, students must have taken at least two courses in Jewish Studies. Selection is based upon a sustained record of achievement in Jewish Studies. Prior recipients may reapply.

Graduate students at Rutgers enrolled in M.A. or Ph.D. programs with a Jewish Studies focus are also eligible for consideration.

* Needs-based awards are also available. To be considered for awards based on both merit and financial need, students must have a FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) on file with the Rutgers Financial Aid Office. *NOTE: If you receive needs-based financial aid, please be advised that receiving a Jewish Studies Student Award may result in the reduction of federal student aid or loans.

To be considered for an award, applicants must submit the following to the Department of Jewish Studies Administrator, Amanda Gravenhise (amanda.gravenhise@rutgers.edu).

Kindly place the words “Excellence in Jewish Studies Awards” in the subject line.

- completed application (see the following three pages)
- Rutgers transcript (an unofficial copy is fine)
- two (2) letters of recommendation from faculty, at least one of whom must be a member of the Department of Jewish Studies at Rutgers. Please request these letters at least two weeks before the deadline and ask your recommenders to e-mail their letters directly to Amanda Gravenhise: amanda.gravenhise@rutgers.edu
- If you have any questions, please e-mail Amanda Gravenhise: amanda.gravenhise@rutgers.edu.
